

CELEBRATION OF 'INTERNATIONAL TRANSLATION DAY, 2026'

The Department of English, PDUAM, Behali, in association with the college IQAC, organised its fourth lecture of the 'Lecture Series on Literature and Language' on 30th September, 2026 parallelly with the celebration of the 'International Translation Day.' The lecture series was hosted by Assistant Professor, Ms. Anannya Nath. Dr. Jahnabi Nath, Assistant Professor, Department of English while welcoming the participants, stated the importance of Translation Studies. The lecture entitled, "To Say or Not to Say: Can Translation Mute the Marginalised?", delivered by Dr. Mayuri Sharma Baruah, Associate Professor of the Department of English, Tinsukia College in alignment with the theme for this year's International Translation Day, "Linguistic Diversity and Language Rights" presented an extensive dialogue on how translation can provide a voice to communities, cultures and experiences that may otherwise remain inaccessible to a wider audience. She also encouraged the students to strive to become translators in the future and to strive to protect their languages. The session was attended by all the undergraduate students of the Department of English, PDUAM, Behali. Ms. Elbani L. Hrangkhoh, Head of the Department of English, managed the technical session of the event. The host concluded the celebration with a vote of thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to the resource person for the insightful and engaging talk, which opened up new possibilities and perspectives for the students.

